2008 Season

eXclusive

wedding photography

This is designed for all weddings and provides everything you need for this once in a lifetime experience.

If you want modern, casual and traditional photography combined with stylish presentation, this is for you!

This service provides all day coverage at all required locations, subject only to the obvious physical constraints.

There is no limit to the number of photographs. We will cover bridal and bridesmaids portraits, arrivals at the ceremony, the ceremony itself, lots of formal and informal group, couple and individual pictures and also lots of pictures at your reception with your speeches, cutting of your wedding cake, toasting and first dance.

We carefully check, adjust and where necessary retouch every image (for example to remove unwanted background details, blinks or skin blemishes) to make sure nothing spoils your perfect look.

Substantially all the pictures taken will be used in your album, which will be designed and produced as a completely unique product.

Each album features double page spreads approximately 12" x 24" in size and each is individually designed to suit your pictures. You can choose your album from a very high quality range in silk, satin or leather.

We will also supply two albums for your parents, each with 40, 6"x 4" prints at no extra cost.

Finally, we will supply three DVD presentations, based upon your album at no extra cost.

The Cost

The charge for the eXclusive service is £1495
