Freestyle

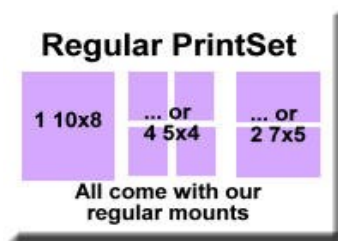

Freestyle is perfect for most types of portrait, whether you want a traditional style or something different.

We make full use of our advanced optical and digital effects to ensure your portraits are designed around your ideas, so the only limit is your own imagination!

What's in the Session?

The session includes making around a dozen different pictures. These are viewed straight away so you can choose your favourites.

Also included are two "PrintSets". Each PrintSet can be any one of the following:

Either One 10"x8" Shelf Portrait or Two 7"x5" SuperMini Portraits or Four 5"x4" MiniPortraits

These prints are supplied in our standard mounts and can usually be finished for the next working day.

Charges

Freestyle sessions are charged at £75.

Special Offer on Extra PrintSets

Most clients like to take advantage of our offer on extra PrintSets ordered on the day of the session.

These are charged at just £20 each – saving up to 50% on extra prints ordered later at our normal rates.

Other Extras

Naturally, you can order extra prints any time, in any size or finish – just tell us your name.

Prints ordered after your session day are charged as shown in our "Reprints and Enlargements" leaflet. Please check this leaflet for details of all current charges and seasonal special offers.

Our full range of 4000 types of hand-made frames is also available. They are normally made to your order in a week or less. Why not choose yours now?

Booking your Session

Sessions typically take about one hour. Help us to provide you with the best service by booking at least two working days ahead – that way we can avoid long queues and unnecessary waiting.

Just call in or 'phone to book. Our opening hours and contact details are shown on the back of this leaflet.

Once you have booked, please keep a record of the details in the space below. Should you need to change your booking, please remember to call and tell us at least one day before the time you have booked so that we can offer the time to another client.
